

SS Peter and Paul 'The Cedars' After School Club

When?

From 3.30 in the afternoon until 6.00pm
(last pick-up).

Where?

After School club will be based in the Cedar Building located next to the KS2 Playground. This can be accessed via the Reception/Nursery gate.

Who?

The Club is open to all children at the school from age 3 to 11. From January 2020, the capacity for each extended school session is 30 children.

What will we do?

The Club is meant to be more home than school...

There will be a selection of snacks available and many activities for the children to choose from. These will include outside games (weather permitting), art and crafts, construction toys, quiet areas for games and reading and chat, the option to do homework, there will be opportunities to play electronic games, use ipad's and the chance to chill with a film and lots of occasional activities such as cooking, baking, gardening, sports etc.

How much does it cost?

A regular place at After School Club costs
£11 per session.

3:30pm-4:30pm £6

4:30pm-6pm- £7 (from a club)

Please complete the form and return it the school office or email a copy to extschool@sspp.merton.sch.uk.

If space is available, you will be notified and requested to sign the terms and conditions, which can be found in the Breakfast and After School Club Policy.

SS Peter and Paul staff will supervise the club.

Mrs Aransiola, as Leader of Extended Schools, will be overseeing the smooth running of the club.

The club will be open every day of term except INSET days and the last day of each term when school ends at 1.30pm.
